(54) Title: GOLF SWING TRAINING DEVICE

(57) Abstract: A golf swing training device (10) including a handle (11) to be gripped by a user to swing the device (10) to practice a golf swing. The lower end of the device (10) includes a removable golf club head (12). Attached to the handle (11) is a reservoir member (15) that encloses a hollow to receive a flowable material such as water. A desired weight for the device (10) is determined by the volume of water located in the reservoir member (15). A golf swing can then be practiced including striking a ball.
